Kearney & Flynn, the present proprietors. for $5,000 on March 5. He was arrested shortly before the vailing of the steamer Majestic, of the White Star line, for Europe, where, it is alleged, he was about to fice.

His arrest was caused by Smith & Mo-Cue, wholesate liquor dealers at 144 VENICE, April 9 - Emperor William Chambers street, upon a charge of fraud.

Chambers street, upon a charge of frant, and that he was about to fier the country and defrand his crediturs.

Godfrey was lacked up in Ludiow Street Jall, but later deposited $250 in court to accure the claim of Smith w More Cue, and was released from custody.

Lawyer Henry Levy, in contesting the application, used some strong language, and, turning to Godfrey, who was in court, pointed his finger at him and exchained: "Your Honor, that man is the worst scoundied in this country. The lawyer said that if the order was vacated Godfrey would flee to Europe.

Justice McCarthy took the papers and reserved decision.

Chambers street, upon a charge of frant, and king Humbert left the palace at 8 o'clock this morning, and were cheered by enthusiastic crowds as they proceeded to the point of embarkation. The Von Moltke, hearing the Kalsor, left for Malamocco, escorted by the ironclad Volturno.

King Humbert starts for Florence to highly, where, in company with Queen Margaret and the Crown Prince, he will visit Queen Victoria.
